Synthesis Activity Sheet

Instructions: Come up with a topic of your choice and find two or three credible sources that relate with your topic. Once you’ve figured out what sources best fit your idea, read the sources carefully and annotate them. Afterwards, answer the questions below.

1. What is your topic?

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________.

2. Title of your Sources
   a. ________________________________
   b. ________________________________
   c. ________________________________

3. What relationship do your sources share?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________.

4. How do your sources connect to justify your claim?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________.

5. How would you organize those sources to connect to one another in a synthesis paper? In other words, how would you order your sources?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________